

my 'Wall of Shite'

- The shelving system is called 'Confetti C11' and was designed by Per Bäckström in 2009 (ish).
- My 'Wall of Shite' consists of three Confetti C11 modules containing 12 shelves in total.
- Each shelf contains a number of objects I have collected. Some of the items have been presented here.
- On the following slide, the shelves are numbered. Pick a number.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

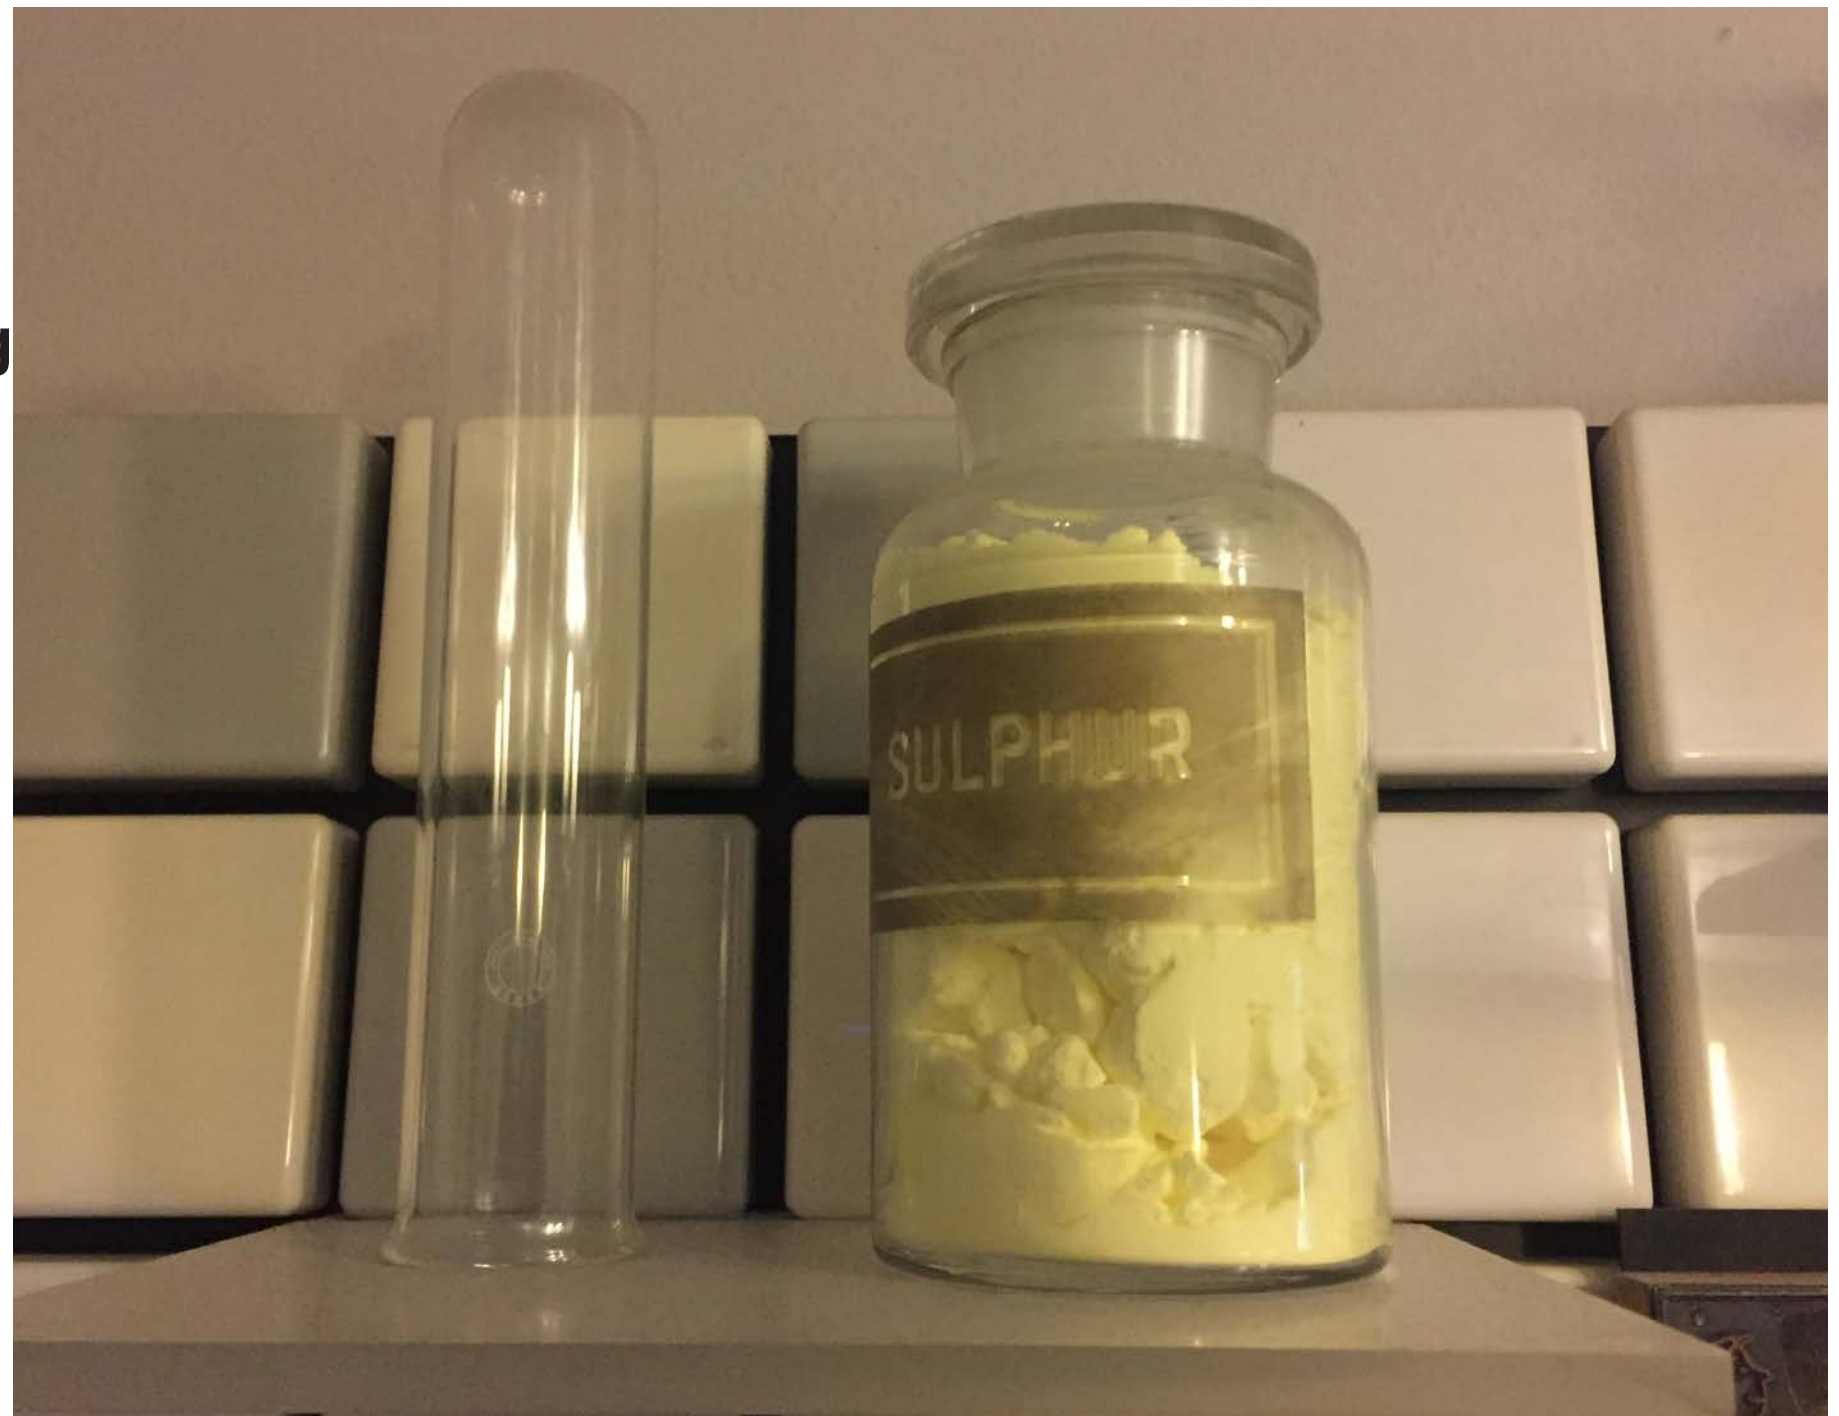

10

11

12

shelf 01

- Scientific test tube bought from salvage shop.
- Etched Apothecary bottle containing sulphur bought from salvage shop.

shelf 02

- Apothecary bottle without stopper marked 'LIGHT PETROLEUM BELOW 40°' using etching.
- Dust.

shelf 03

- Advertising printing plate, late 1950's, early 1960's featuring contemporary illustration advertising fish sauce. Bought from car boot sale.
- Advertising printing plate, late 1950's, featuring Saladin and Vebol oils, manufactured by the British edible Oils Limited (Telephone Birkenhead 2411).
- Green textured cast glass tray, 1940's, 1950's, bought from collectors market.

shelf 04

- 5 1/4" floppy disk 'Video for Schools pH Titrations' for BBC Microcomputer.
- Wittner 'Taktell Super Mini' portable metronome.
- Acrylic moulded block used in (probably) screenprinting.

shelf 05

- (not seen) Copper etched halftone printing plate featuring an early computer system used in sound recording.
- Printing plate featuring satirical cartoon of 'the Blackpool Taxpayer cash cow'.
- Copperplate etching of an Edwardian gentleman.
- Moulded glass bowl with damage to the lower edge of the rim.

shelf 06

- Medicine bottle featuring a scale of measure in tablespoons, found in earth removed from a pipeline excavation.
- Unmarked medicine bottle found in earth removed from a pipeline excavation.
- Etched Apothecary bottle with stopper marked 'NITRIC ACID DILUTE C215'.

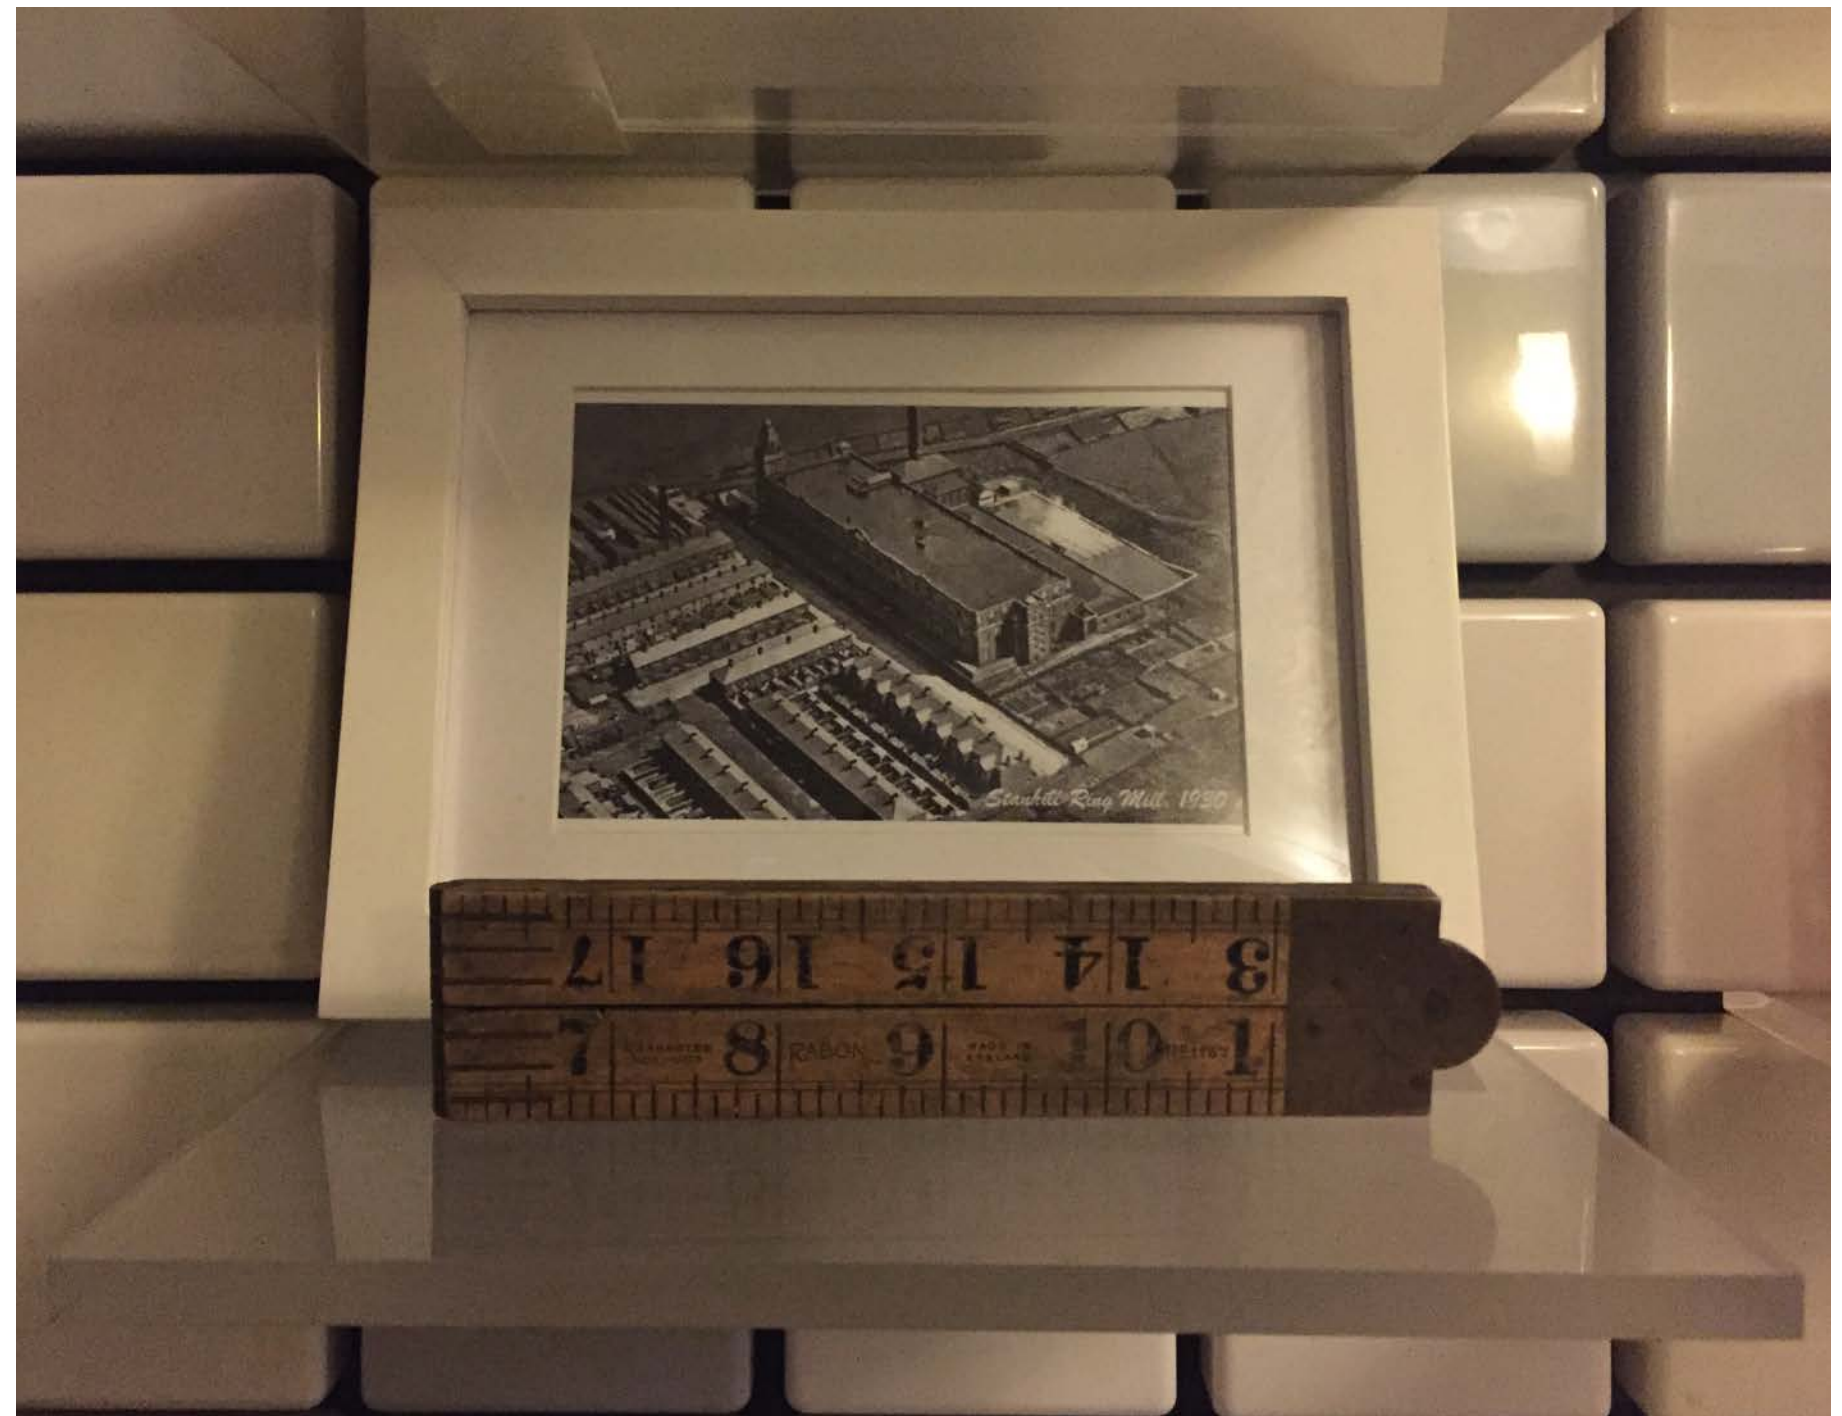

shelf 07

- Reproduction Stylophone 'Model S1' featuring MP3 port, volume control and three sound modes.
- Vintage early 1970's 'White Model' Stylophone as used by David Bowie in 'Space Oddity'.

shelf 08

- Reproduction press photograph of Stanhill Ring Mill, 1930's.
- Rabone 'warranted boxwood' 24" folding measure no.1167.

shelf 09

- MoMA acrylic perpetual calendar bought in NY and presented on my 40th birthday in BLT Prime, 1032 Lexington after a $60 steak.
- (not seen) Brass and enamelled Vespa plaque in the style of Raymond Savignac bought at a Volkswagen Autojumble. Not sure what it is or what it could be used for.

shelf 10

- Gunners Prism from Cruiser Tank Mk VIII Cromwell (A27M) approx 1943.
- Brian Eno and Peter Schmidt's Oblique Strategies (5th edition) approx 2001.

shelf 11

- Vintage 'Contraband' card game from 1960.
- James Keiller antique stoneware marmalade jar, date unknown.
- Vintage Rowntree's Elect Cocoa tin.
- Bulgarian .22 shell casing.
- Sculpted naive house by S.D. Hargreaves.
- Shell from Madeira.
- Assorted quartz, granite and copper ore stones.

shelf 11 (cont.)

- Printing block featuring a revolver bought on Camden Lock in 1992.
- Shard of shrapnel retrieved from Formby Beach.
- Printing block featuring a Series 2 Lambretta bought on Camden Lock.
- Lead wedge found in brickwork.
- 1857 agricultural show medal for 'Best Threshing Machine'.
- Just a button, discovered in the garden. We thought it was an old coin. It wasn't.

shelf 12

- Dragon by S.D. Hargreaves.
- Grandma Canna's Penguin.
- Cotton Bale Stencilling Stamps in brass, numbers 0, 3, 5 and 9.
- Fossilised Sphenopsid stem found at Dinkley Bridge.
- Sculptural Catalytic Converter remnants, discovered on the floor in Unit 27, Albert Mill.

thank you